One way to nullify a Bad Lease.
There is a shrewd and wealthy old Yankee landlord away down in Maine, who is noted for driving his 'sharp bargains'—bell of our residence was rung with a violence that threatened to break the wires, and a bright yellow handbill was brought to us advertising the discovery of a powder to clean brass and silver. A postscript at the bottom requested the receiver to "preparty them is not over scrapulous in his rental charges, whenever he can find a customer whom he knows to be reaponsible. His of ject is always to lease his houses for a term of years, to the best tenants, and get the utmost farthing in the shape of rent.
A diminutive Frenchman celled on him, last winter, to hire a dwelling he owned in Portland, and which had long remained empty.' Reference was given, and the Portland, and which had long remain-ed empty. Reference was given, and the Yankee landlord ascertained he was a man after his own beart' for a tenant, immediately commenced to 'jew' him. He found that the tenement appeared to suit the little Frenchman, and he placed an exorbitant price upon it: but the lease was drawn and duly executed, and the tenant moved into his new quarters.

Upon the kindling of fires in the house it was found that the chimneys wouldn't draw,' and the building was filled with smoke. The window sashes rattled in the wind at night and the cold at rushed through wind at night and the cold at rushed through a hundred crevices about the house, until now unnoticed. The snow melted upon the roof, and the attics were drenched from leaking. The rain pelted, and our Frenchman found a 'natural' bath room upon the cellar floor—but the lease was signed, and the landlord chuckled.

"I have teen vat you sall call 'suck in,' vis zis dam mansion,' —muttered our victim to himself, a week afterward—but n'importe—ve sal se, vot ve sal see!"

These dinerant wonders of goods are teldem modest or shashed, and are therefore not readily dismissed. Often indeed they are quite rude and insolent. Young housekeepers are especially liable to these visitations, and it is with such that the experienced and imprudent among the itinerants take the most liberties.

George way, June 16, 1847.

We, the undersigned, physicians, have, at the inviration of Mr. J. Rotter, carefully examined his Mineral Water Establishment, and take pleasure in pronouncing our entire astisfaction with his superior and nest arrangements.

The apparatus and bot ling machine annexed, is a production of the lettest American invention, se constructed as to ensure a full at d perfect saturation
of gas to a degree heretore unknown to pa.

The water used for its manufacture is pure and wholesome, and the care taken in the process, se well as the cleanliness pervading the whole establi hmint, meets with our entire approbation, and induces us to recommend it to the public, as a very superior and healthy article.
